

Granada Hills Needs You!

Open Election. If you live, work, or play in Granada Hills and you have opinions and ideas to help improve and conserve the neighborhood, then this opportunity is perfect for you.

The Granada Hills South Neighborhood Council will be holding an election for 21 Directors on September 8th. Registrations for Candidates runs from July 10 through August 9th.

Eleven Directors represent Business, Commercial Property Owners, Home Owners, Renters, Community Organizations, Faith Based Organizations, Education, Students, Youth Activities, Recreation and Cultural Affairs, and Seniors. Ten other directors are Members at Large.

Running for Director is simple.

If you live, work, go to school, own property, or belong to an organization, house of worship, or club anywhere within the green boundary, then you could qualify to be on the Granada Hills South Neighborhood Council.
